Bowl-for-Education 2012

On Saturday, January 21, thirty-eight teams representing every Hanover school, the Hanover County School Board, local businesses, the central office, and the Hanover Education Foundation (HEF) gathered at the AMF Hanover Lanes on Bell Creek Road for the 9th "Bowl for Education." The HEF raised over $17,600 to support grants and scholarships for Hanover County students and teachers.

The first place trophy went to the team from The Supply Room Companies, We Supply Strikes (Clyde Johnson, Barbara Laney, Wayne Smith, William Quarles). The second place trophies went to the Hanover High School Hawks (George Sadler, Leslie Simmons, Tom Connolly, Randy West). The third place trophy went to Liberty Middle School, Team Awesome (Matt Bobbitt, Paul Heizer, Dan McGraw, Robert Rice). Chip Tuck, bowling for the Rural Point Elementary School team, received the trophy for highest score in a game for a male, and Barbara Laney from The Supply Room Companies received the trophy for highest score in a game for a female. This year's costume theme for the tournament was The 60's. Best Dressed Runner-Up went to Kersey Creek Elementary School for The Comet Trekkies, a take-off from Star Trek (Briean Archer, Carrie Johnson, Melissa Lowder, Shannon Tiller, Nicole Dudley, Esther McDermott, Donna Smith, Nancy Storie), and Best Dressed First Place went to The Hanover Center for Trades and Technology for Gilligan's Island (Vince D'Agostino, Katie Carneal, Casey Owen, Justin Roerink, Sarah Mitchell). Best Dressed Honorable Mention went to Hanover Education Foundation for the Rockin' Rollers (Janelle Wilson, Superintendent, was Tina Turner; Matte Anderson of TRANE was Elvis; Gianna Clark of Dominion Virginia Power was Nancy Sinatra; Rachel Gann of Dixon Hughes Goodman was Cher).
