Hanover Education Foundation Holds Annual Bowling Fundraiser

MECHANICSVILLE, Va. – The Hanover Education Foundation (HEF) recently held its 15th Annual Bowl-for-Education fundraising event at AMF-Hanover Lanes in Mechanicsville where $18,000 was raised. Forty-four teams representing area businesses and Hanover County Public Schools competed.

During this event, participants also brought cans of soup as part of the HEF's "Soup-er-Bowl" theme, which were donated to Mechanicsville Churches Emergency Function (MCEF) and Ashland Christian Emergency Services (ACES) food pantries.

Trophies were awarded to the top bowlers:

- First Place – Bender's Bowlers (Atlee Chiropractic Center)
- Second Place – Elmont Elite (Elmont Elementary School)
- Third Place – Rural Point Rollers (Rural Point Elementary School)

Top Female Bowler – Vicki Rengers (Atlee Chiropractic Center)

Top Male Bowler – David Zahn (Atlee Chiropractic Center)

HEF would like to thank the following team sponsors:

- Atlee Chiropractic Center
- Candid Color
- Chick-fil-A – VCC & Ashland Stores
- Marla Coleman
- LifeTouch
- Loving's Auto Body
- State Farm/Julie Whittaker
- Eddie Davenport Construction

Established in 1998, the HEF provides grants and scholarships to students in Hanover County Public Schools, as well as professional development opportunities for teachers. The HEF's next fundraising event, the 21st Annual Golf Tournament, will take place on June 18th. For more information, please contact the HEF's Executive Director, Margaret Hill, at mhill@hcps.us, or call (804) 365-4565.
