Hanover Education Foundation Holds Annual Bowling Fundraiser

MECHANICSVILLE, Va. – The Hanover Education Foundation (HEF) recently held its 14th Annual Bowl-for-Education fundraising event at AMF-Hanover Lanes in Mechanicsville where more than $17,500 was raised. Forty-four teams representing area businesses and Hanover County Public Schools competed.

During this event, participants also brought cans of soup as part of the HEF's "Soup-er-Bowl" theme, which were donated to Mechanicsville Churches Emergency Function (MCEF) and Ashland Christian Emergency Services (ACES) food pantries.

Trophies were awarded to the top bowlers:

- First Place – Bender's Bowlers (Atlee Chiropractic Center)
- Second Place – Flying Balls (Lee-Davis High School)
- Third Place – Elmont Elite (Elmont Elementary School)

Top Female Bowler – Ollie Morton with a 690 set (Atlee Chiropractic Center)

Top Male Bowler – Mike Jacobson with a 728 set (Atlee Chiropractic Center)

HEF would like to thank the following team sponsors:

- 301 Auto Repair
- Atlee Chiropractic Center
- Candid Color
- Edgenuity
- Fire Solutions
- LifeTouch
- Lincoln Financial Group
- Sheehy Ford
- TRANE
- Julie Tate

Established in 1998, the HEF provides grants and scholarships to students in Hanover County Public Schools, as well as professional development opportunities for teachers. The HEF's next fundraising event, the 20th Annual Golf Tournament, will take place on June 19th. For more information, please contact the HEF's Executive Director, Margaret Hill, at mhill@hcps.us, or call (804) 365-4565.
